

Specialist Portfolio Clinical Chemistry Competence - 7.13 Gastrointestinal Disorders and Malabsorption

Name:

To be signed off by appropriately qualified staff after satisfactory performance observed and knowledge displayed

	Trainer
	Name	Grade	Signature
Explain the functions of the major regions of the GIT and associated organs
Give examples of tests routinely used in your laboratory to assess GI disorders and malabsorption
Locate information for sample requirements for tests and be able to give advice to clinicians regarding sample types
Explain the methodological techniques used to measure the assays listed in the 'Knowledge' section and how different methods and standards used may alter results obtained			